A black and white photograph of a group of students working on a wooden building with multiple external staircases. The students are engaged in various tasks, including climbing stairs, working on the structure, and standing on the ground. The building has a rustic, wooden appearance with several windows and doors. The scene is busy and captures a moment of active learning or construction.

IN APPRECIATION

OUR CLASS ADVISORS,
MRS. GAZZANIGA, MR. CANEDY, MRS. LESS,
WERE ALWAYS READY TO GIVE US THEIR ENCOURAGEMENT AND ADVICE.
DESPITE THE MANY FRUSTRATIONS WE GAVE THEM,
THEY CHEERFULLY AND WILLINGLY HELPED US IN OUR CLASS ENDEAVORS.
THE CLASS OF 1972 THANKS THEM.

'Frosty' wins Orr prize

"Frosty the Snowman," won the Harry S. Orr award as the outstanding float in the 1971 Fall Foliage Festival Parade.

The float, the work of McCann School students, consisted of a mechanized snowman which rotated and waved to the parade spectators. A female skater was attached to "Frosty," and her feet moved.

In addition to winning the award as the outstanding float in the parade, "Frosty" won the youth division, the only division in which there was competition.

 4th ROW: Asst. Coach Ramocki, R. Morin, Head Coach Walden

The 1972 football season was a time of transition and rebuilding for the Hornets. For the first time in many years, there was a new coaching staff - Mr. Walden took over duties as head coach, ably assisted by Mr. Ramocki. Many new faces joined the few veteran team members, and although McCann did not post any victories, the Hornets acquitted themselves well. Competing against schools often much larger than McCann, the Hornets played some impressive games, auguring well for future years. Nine seniors, including co-captains Fred Brewer and Cary Maroni will be lost through graduation.

BASKETBALL

1st ROW: P. Vivori, R. Clairmont, J. Cooper, W. Girard, D. Galipeau
2nd ROW: T. Wilk, R. Hazard, Coach Cichowski, W. Hakes, M. DeSanty

The Homet's basketball season was highlighted this year by Billy Hakes' phenomenal scoring ability, which ultimately led to his walking away with top scoring honors in the Berkshire Hills Conference. There was more competition this year due to a change in the league schedule; for the first time McCann played St. Joe (NA) and St. Joe (Pitt) in league conference games, and also Mt. Greylock and Wahconah in independent games. Coach Cichowski took over as varsity coach and Mr. Naughton coached the JV team which played many exciting games.

BASEBALL

STANDING: Coach Hartlage, B. Field, M. Bushika, E. St. Pierre, D. Sucharewski, T. Wilk, T. Meczywor, J. Boulger, K. Rysz, W. Snow, B. Phillips, Asst. Coach Rivers

The 1972 McCann baseball season was not as rewarding as all its fans had hoped it would be. Playing a fifteen-game schedule, the Hornets were plagued by bad weather, causing a late start and a tight schedule with little time off for rest. The highlights of the season were our win over Lenox High and the extremely able pitching of Ted Meczywor and Doug Cooper. The Hornets will be without the services next year of Senior Tom Wilk and Junior Bob Clairmont.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

We have come to that time of year when thousands of young men and women like us leave high school to begin life in the working world. Our FORMAL education has provided us with a map to help us make our way through life. Our teachers have acted as the mapmakers, using their own experience and knowledge to plot the twists and turns we are going to find along the way. Any attempt to disregard these warnings may bring us regret and tragedy.

Most of us will say good-bye to formal education forever and go forth keyed up with sincere and honest aspirations. We have been told that anything we want we can get, if we want it strongly enough and are willing to work for it. Nothing is beyond the mental or physical limitations of the individual who has set his mind and heart upon the attainment of a goal. We must not only consider the attainment of the goal but also the means we will use to reach our objective. If we employ dishonest, selfish, or thoughtless means which will hurt other human beings, our efforts will be worthless.

We also must face and solve many of the problems left over from the generations before us, problems such as war, pollution, prejudice, and unemployment. The previous generation has already started to solve many of these problems but we must continue to search for more solutions. We have been made aware of how fast science and technology have been growing and changing. To preserve mankind and to solve some of the problems created by this progress, we must look at the humanistic side of technology. The impact of technology on environment and the growth of concern for the degradation of our world, both physical and social, have brought home to all of us that the learning of facts without values can no longer be acceptable. In the past, profit and promotion have usually been the basic motives in technological changes, but now the dismal consequences of this materialistic approach are visible to all. Today steps are being taken to clean up our air and water supplies. Our country's great woodlands are being set aside as national parks and sources of pollution are now being controlled.

As we leave McCann to start lives for ourselves we have an obligation to our parents, our school, our fellowmen and to ourselves. It is to strive continuously to make life better.

As the class of 1972 of McCann Technical School let us earnestly resolve to remember the instructional guidance of our teachers, be constantly aware of the means we use to reach our goals, to try honestly to solve the problems of our society, and to keep before us the humanistic side of technology by considering the values we have learned in school. Fellow graduates, good luck and farewell.
